

RAIN STOPS THE GAME WITH NAPS AT LITTLE END

Boston Runners Start With It Three and Two on Wagner and All Score When He Cracks Out a Single.

CLEVELAND, Aug. 21.—Boston won from Cleveland three to two Thursday in a seven inning contest. The game was called because of rain while Cleveland was at bat in the eighth inning, and a run and hit made by Boston in their half of the inning did not count. A threatened rally by Cleveland also was nipped in the bud.

Boston's runs were made in the third inning. Lewis doubled. Gardner got an infield single and stole second. Yerkes walked. With three balls and two strikes on Wagner, all the base runners started to run with the pitcher's windup and when Wagner singled, all three scored.

Cleveland's two runs came in the second inning. Lajoie singled and took second on Lewis' fumble. Olson sacrificed. Turner walked. Birmingham squeezed Lajoie home on his sacrifice and Turner took third. Turner scored when Wagner threw wild on O'Neill's grounder.

PIRATES WIN IN SLUGGING MATCH

O'Toole is Back on the Mound and While He is Hit Hard, the Early Lead is Too Much for Phillies.

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 22.—In a hard hitting game here Thursday Pittsburgh defeated Philadelphia nine to six. Pittsburgh made 14 hits for a total of 28 bases, Byrne leading with a home run, a double and a single, while Miller made a home run and a double and every one of the visitors except O'Toole getting one or more safeties.

Alexander was knocked off the rubber in four innings and Rixey lasted only one, but Marshall finished the game in good style. After being hit hard for three innings, O'Toole settled down until the latter part of the contest, when he weakened but the home team never got close enough to Pittsburgh's score to be dangerous. Lohert was hit on the knee cap by a fast grounder off Wagner's bat in the first inning, and the injury later forced him to leave the game.

Bescher, Egan and Hoblitzel divided nine of the 11 hits made off Ragan and Bescher scored half of the Cincinnati runs. Ames was effective except in two innings and was given faultless support.

Braun, who started for Milwaukee, was knocked out of the box, and Dougherty, who followed him, was just as easy. Rossman's hitting was a feature. Comstock left Thursday night for Detroit where he will join Jennings' team on Friday.

CRAWFORD IS INVITED

Wahoo Sam May Make the Tour Around the World.

Wahoo Sam Crawford, of the Tigers, says he will probably make the round the world trip after the close of the season. Sam is the only one of the jungle group to whom an invitation was sent as it was known that the great Tyrus Raymond Cobb would not consider making the world-circling trip. The Detroit barber-player may change his mind about taking the long jaunt, but he is long for the educational benefits of such a cruise around the world. He doesn't believe that it will be particularly nerve racking.

There's Sorrow Ahead for Many a Stage-Struck Girl

WHERE ONE SMILES DOZENS ARE ON THE VERGE OF TEARS; WHERE ONE RISES TO STARDOM, THOUSANDS BATTLE, DAY AND NIGHT WITH THE WOLF.

Norman and Artist Ewer Spend a Day on the "Gay" White Way With Theatrical Managers, Now Engaging Actors and Actresses for Next Winter's Productions.

Georgia Caine

DRAWN ESPECIALLY FOR THE NEWS-TIMES BY RAYMOND CRAWFORD EWER.

BY NORMAN.

NEW YORK, Aug. 22.—Somewhere in the offices of every theatrical producing firm in New York there is a large, bleak room with benches or chairs around the walls.

This is the waiting room. Here the people of the stage begin to drop in, about 11 in the morning, and sit, waiting to see the man who does the engaging.

He may be busy 'till late in the afternoon. The jobless ones can only sit and wait. No lunch for them—they dare not go out and risk missing a chance of getting a place.

You may look in at one and see them—the room crowded, all the seats filled, many standing, the women and girls so obviously "gotten up" to look their very best and trying so pathetically hard to keep the tiredness out of their rugged and whitened faces. The men endeavor to appear jaunty and quite at ease, though more than one poor devil may merely have tightened his belt in lieu of breakfast.

You may look in at three and still see them all there, mostly silent, trying to hope, patient, weary. You may look in at five and perhaps may see an inner door open and perhaps may hear an office boy yell: "Youse cap all go fer today! Mr. Grady can't see nobody till tomorrow."

You may watch them file out, drooping, dejected, but ready to come and sit and wait, tomorrow.

There is the picture, as one looks in upon it, from the outside. How does it look from the inside? Let us hear from Georgia Caine. She has been through the mill; through the waiting, and the coming back tomorrow.

Now Mr. Grady sends for her when she is needed. She is to be one of the important members of the company which will present "Adele", the new musical comedy which has the backing of young Ziegler, multi-millionaire heir of the "baking powder king."

To girls who are thinking of coming to Broadway and "going on the stage" Georgia Caine says:

"If you cannot curb your desire to become an actress come to New York and stop at a boarding house where board and lodging will cost you ten dollars a week. Stay there two weeks. You will know just the kind of fare you will get in one-night stands. "Walk up and down Broadway and see the expressions on the faces of the hundreds of actors you will pass who are looking for engagements—faces in which confidence has given way to fear, and fear to desperation, as no engagement is found, in weeks, in months—yes, in years, sometimes."

"Follow the sad procession from one manager's office to another. Start out early in the morning, filled with hope and optimism, and come back at night to what you call home, heart-sore, weary and tired, weighed down not alone with your own disappointment, but with that of the throng which has accompanied you through the White Way's slough of despond—the waiting rooms."

"Back in your poor, little boarding-house room sit down and wonder if it's all worth while."

"Oh, the pitiful scenes that the walls of these 'theatrical procuring houses' could tell! I have seen hundreds of young girls come from other cities, and from the country, faces wreathed in smiles, complexions bright and clear. I have seen them, weeks or months later, so changed I hardly knew them, and with hearts seared by the bitter struggle.

"Ninety out of every hundred who come to New York to go on the stage fail. Some go back home. A few stay in New York and find some other work. There are many who go—into the maelstrom."

GERMANY TO SEND TEAM

Athletes From There to Compete at San Francisco.

BERLIN, Aug. 22.—James E. Sullivan, secretary of the Amateur Athletic union, Thursday obtained the promise that a team of German athletes would be sent to San Francisco to compete at the Panama-Pacific exposition in 1915.

In return for this courtesy it is considered likely that the American team which is to participate in the Greek Olympic games, known as the "local cycle" in the spring of 1914, will, upon leaving Athens, make a trip to Berlin and participate in an athletic meet there.

U. C. T. TEAMS TO PLAY

Local Men Will Meet at Terre Haute Aug. 30.

The U. C. T. baseball team from Terre Haute are scheduled to play the local U. C. T. organization at Springfield park on Saturday, Aug. 30, and the locals announce a game with the Elkhart section at Springfield on Saturday, Sept. 6. Both of these games should furnish some classy baseball, as the locals claim to have "some" ball players, while both Elkhart and Terre Haute have been playing good ball throughout the season.

PFEFFER PUSHED CURTIS OFF JOB

Grand Rapids Pitcher Displaces Another Former Central Leaguer—Pfeffer a Protege of George Huff.

When Pitcher Ed "Jeff" Pfeffer of Grand Rapids, joined the Brooklyn Trolley Dodgers on Ebbett's field the other day, to take another swing at the big show, he forced out Cliff Curtis, a hurler who used to appear in the Central.

Curtis went to Fort Wayne as a green hurler in 1903 and was taken in charge by Babe Myers. With the assistance of "Cyclone" Alberts and Arthur Carbiener he landed the pennant. He was sold before the close of the season to the Milwaukee club of the American association.

For several years he was with the Brewers and then joined the Boston Nationals. Since he went to the majors he has managed to stick and has at various times been a member of the Chicago, Philadelphia and Brooklyn teams. He was never more than a pitcher of the middle class.

Pfeffer also got his start in Fort Wayne. He was taken on by Jack Hendricks in 1909. He went there from his home in Champaign, Ill., having been recommended by George Huff, baseball coach of the University of Illinois. He was found too green for the Central and was sent to LaCrosse, Wis. He was drafted to the St. Louis Americans but later came back to Fort Wayne. In 1912 he was sold to Grand Rapids.

This year he was back in his stride and attracted the attention of several of the big fellows. Larry Sutton of the big Dodgers was the successful bidder, however, and "Big Jeff" is taking another try among the big fish.
